DETAILED ACTION

The amendment filed on June 17, 2002 has been entered. Claims 3-4, 7-8, 11 and 16-20 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 3 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 3 and 7, the recitation of "said component" is not clearly understood, since claim 17 recites "said planar shaped transfer member having passageways."

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 3, 11 and 17-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wilson et al, Cutchaw, Kikuchi et al, Helt et al, August et al, Fox et al, Budelman, Cheon, Hamilton et al, or Iversen.

Claims 3, 11, 16-17 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Butt.

Claims 3-4, 11 and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Messina et al (Figure 5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Messina et al in view of Papst et al.

Messina et al (Figure 5, column 5, lines 13-30) discloses all the claimed limitations except an embedded pump.

Papst et al discloses a heat sink apparatus comprising a component 1 having fluid passageways defined by ribs 3-10 and embedded pump 15 for the purpose of optimizing space requirements.

Since Messina et al and Papst et al are both from the same field of endeavor and/or analogous art, the purpose disclosed by Papst et al would have been recognized in the pertinent art of Messina et al.

It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to employ in Messina et al an embedded pump for the purpose of optimizing space requirements as recognized by Papst et al.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 8 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The Examiner appreciates applicant's instant invention. However, the claims do not recite structure to overcome the prior art of record. For example, in claim 1, the recitation of "a second heat transfer capability" is not a structural limitation. The prior art in the grounds of rejection employ refrigeration systems to supply heat transfer members mounted to components. Refrigeration systems are well known to have a condenser section where air cools the refrigerant.

Although, Messina et al discloses three or more serpentine passageways in parallel may be employed, an embedded pump at the inlet of four serpentine passageways in believed unobvious and novel in view of the prior art of record.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
